AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

42 months.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Denise Browning, is hereby committed on Counts 3 and 4 of the Second Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 42 months. This term consists of 21 months on Count 3, and 21 months on Count 4, all such terms to run consecutively.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 1 year. This term consists of 1 year on each of Counts 3 and 4, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and any other court-ordered financial obligations in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee, consultant, volunteer, or otherwise, in any business involving taxes, asset management, business consultation, or payroll management without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to such operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer;
4. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's mental health treatment to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
7. During the time of supervised release, the defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the period of incarceration and the period of supervised release. The defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order; and
8. During the term of community supervision, the defendant shall pay to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) $814,871, representing the loss amount caused to the IRS by the defendant's offenses of convictions (Counts 3 and 4). Said loss amount shall be paid in nominal monthly installment payments of not less than $150 during the term of supervised release until the loss amount is fully satisfied. The defendant shall provide proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer and such payments shall be mailed to:

IRS - RACS, Mail Stop 6261, Restitution
333 W. Pershing Avenue
Kansas City, MO 64108.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Services), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on June 14, 2013. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The bond is hereby exonerated upon self-surrender.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated to a Southern California facility.

The defendant is advised of the right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
